

Media oligarchy is the fastest way to kill an already ailing democracy. Please don't allow all of the channels of communication in one town to be owned by one corporation; any view they do not hold will not be broadcast. Unbiased journalism has always been in jeopardy and has seen better days (I hope). Nevertheless, don't put the nails in the coffin, banishing tv, radio and papers to the irrelevancy of the identical. Consider my intellectual health and well-being, me, mrs. average american.
